Description

Delft Blue pottery and tattoos may not be the most obvious combination, but they have more in common than thought. Parallels can be found in origin, meaning, craft and mastery. Especially for this collaboration, Henk Schiffmacher has made a number of unique objects with the master painters of Royal Delft, where the two worlds literally touch. This Delft Blue tile painting is drawn after the original by Pieter Bruegel. This tile painting is a limited edition of which just 10 will be made. The tilepainting comes with a certificate of authenticity.
